Donald McPhail, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.As the sleek ship sails further from San Francisco, the stock market begins to falter. Amidst frantic celebrations, sexy flappers and good times that are expected to last forever, the warnings are ignored. While more than three hundred millionaires sail from San Francisco on a luxurious two-month cruise, they are unaware that their comfortable lives are about to change. The Roaring Twenties forms the backdrop and the newest luxury liner, the SS Malolo, provides the stage in an elegant mystery where every reader knows the conclusion. Some thirty days later -- on October 29, 1929 -- it will be over in the biggest market crash in history. But it is the story that is unique. The Millionaires Cruise is a page-turner, filled with unscrupulous bankers, arrogant financiers, and spoiled young heirs who prefer dancing and drugs to reality. It s a world where greed and privilege are locked in conflict with ethics and integrity -- the fundamental battle between capitalism and democracy. It s also an adventure story, with ruggedly handsome South African Duff Malone working his way up in the world s largest travel company, before his challenging assignment, guiding these frustrated millionaires through turbulence and chaos. And it s a love story, with auburn-haired ship s nurse Christy Miller carrying her own secrets, while being drawn to Malone but seriously distracted by the Malolo s demanding captain, Erik Christian. The Millionaires Cruise is a history of the travel industry, beginning with well appointed steamships carrying wealthy travelers from Johannesburg to Cairo, and luxury trains speeding across America, leading to the earliest days of air travel and the Flying Clippers. Through compelling characters, we are drawn...
