A few years later, at the request of an American commodore, the door of Japan, under gentle compulsion, turned slowly on its hinges, creaking with the rust of centuries, and the western world welcomed the hermit nation of the East into the great brotherhood of states. Feudal lords were puzzled and perplexed by the freedom with which naval and military diplomatic representatives from Europe and America offered to flood our land with the blessings of western civilization. At the present time Japan is everywhere known, and well known; ships from the farthest shores come and go laden with cargoes for Japan, and with wealth from our fields and factories for other countries. Japan, on entering into communication with other nations, came suddenly into contact with the full energy and effect of modern commercial and political spirit.
