Reviews

The publication is straightforward in study safer to recognize. It is written in straightforward words and never hard to understand. It has been printed in an extremely straightforward way and it is just after I finished reading this book through which basically modified me, affected the way I think.

I should like to present a thing of historical interest. You all know that there is no greater little nuisance in hospitals than the various means of holding and hanging, and rendering accessible and keeping clean the history blanks in the wards. There seem to me to be but two ideal methods. All the clips in use are vastly heavy or clumsy, like the enameled iron clips, or so awkwardly project, like the Shannon file, that no nurse can carry any number at once. This cover is of aluminum. It is a portfolio 12 x 11 inches, with a spring back so arranged that one can readily remove or replace any sheet, or the whole. It allows of writing on both sides of the sheet. Where the bedside notes are bound with the rest of the history, as is not uncommon, this thin paper with entries on both sides greatly lessens the bulk of history volumes. This holder, called Sieber and Trussell (St. Louis) No. 675, costs 1. 60 a piece in hospital lots. That seems excessive, but the aluminum folder goes along from history to history and year to year. . indestructible, sterilizable, portable, handsome, clean. A colored seal designates the service, and a pasted label carries the patients name. The other method is a complete adoption, in the wards, of the vertical file system in use in offices. A manila folder or portfolio holds each history. Those of one ward stand...
