Excerpt from Observations on Obstetric Auscultation: With an Analysis of the Evidences of Pregnancy, and an Inquiry Into the Proofs of the Life and Death of the Fetus in Utero If we for a moment consider the responsible task for medical adviser is occasionally called upon to perform, when desired to pronounce on the existence or absence of pregnancy; that peace of mind, domestic happiness, character, property, nay even life itself, may be sacrificed by inaccuracy in his diagnosis; we shall find sample reason to question, whether there be, in the broad field of medical science, any subject which more calls for the attention of the practitioner, as well from its importance as from the difficulty so frequently attending its investigation. Every medical man, at all conversant with midwifery practice, knows how often he is required to give an opinion in cases of doubtful pregnancy, by his ordinary patients, who are naturally anxious to be acquainted with their real situation; and he also well knows what dissatisfaction and want of confidence his refusal to give a decided answer...
