After the funding problems of the previous fiscal year, in which Va ran out of money due to poor budgetary modeling, the administration stepped forward and recommended a sufficient amount of money for veterans programs. also, as your Committee formulated the budget recommendations, we were pleased that you listened to what we had to say. you used our funding levels from the independent budget as part of your base-line. we didnt get everything that we wanted, but it was a very good step, and we appreciate the serious consideration you gave to our views and your demonstrated commitment in moving them forward. despite the Committees and administrations attention, Va still does not have its budget for a fiscal year that begins in a few days. this unfortunately is nothing out of the ordinary. it has been the better part of a decade since Va has had a budget on time. this is a major and continuous failure of Congress. mr. Chairman, you rightly want Va to operate more like a busi-ness, using best practices to efficiently care for veterans in a cost-ef-fective way. yet, how...
