Upon assuming control the Board found irregularities existing that were detrimental to the interests of the State and of the inmates. From the report of the Board to this Committee the following is quoted: It was found that just claims due the State from contractors to the amount of several hundred dollars had not been collected, and that the labor of inmates had been furnished to certain contractors without charge. The facts were found and presented to the Board of Managers by the General Superintendent, October 29, 1903, as follows: INDIANA MANUFACTURING COMPANY. Unsettled labor account $1,198 88 Interest on overdue labor account 3,498 60 Due on extra labor furnished from July 1, 1896, to December 1, 1902, 19,545 days at...
