From the introductory. THE author, in presenting this volume to the public, begs to state that his intention in compiling it is not to have it recorded as one of the literary marvels of the day, but to give to the prince of good fellows a guide of value for his home, club, hotel, or café. As previously stated in his first Manual, it is only practical experience, through long association with leading American hotels and clubs, that enables him to publish this book, the most complete of its kind ever issued. In the advertising section, contained at the end of this book, the reader will find only such products as have been preferred by the author; and as their use has proven satisfactory and pleased many thousand guests, he would suggest their preference in your mixing. That the reader may be familiar with the various sizes and the terms used in this publication, the following table will prove of value, but only applies to liquor, i. e., whiskey, in, etc., other ingredients additional: 1 Jigger = 1/2 whiskey glass. 100 = 1/2 whiskey glass. 50 = 1/4 whiskey glass. 25 = 1/8 whiskey glass. half whiskey glass being regarded as a full portion for one person. If you, my friend, at any time wish advice relating to the subject of mixed drinks or beverages, and will correspond with the author, your communication will receive prompt and careful attention. In closing, one request is made of the reader: If through the pages of this work you find its contents of value, suggest it to your friends, that we all may drink to each other s...
