Every vision is a joke until the first man accomplishes it; once realized, it becomes commonplace. Dr. Robert Goddard, Inventor of the Liquid Fuel RocketTruer words were never spoken as you will find out! This book spotlights the realities of inventing. Many believe that if you invent something great you are guaranteed to become rich and famous. Nothing can be farther from the truth as forces well beyond the inventors control can overtake the inventor and invention. Read the following paragraphs and you will see what I mean. Like your cell phone? Read about the woman inventor who never got a dime for the technology she invented to make today's cell phones work! Learn that the inventor of a car bought by emperors, kings, and sultans died so poor that he reportedly couldn't afford a telephone, let alone a car that bore his name! How about your refrigerator? Read about a Florida physician that succeeded in making a working refrigerator, then was slandered by newspapers about it and died penniless. Do you know that the creator of the first ATM machine deemed it a failure as only prostitutes and gamblers would use it? Have a laptop? Read about the inventor who went broke on his invention that was the ancestor of the laptop! Read about a black inventor whose ingenious invention made millions for many except him! Learn that the inventor of Kindergarten was rewarded by having his new great teaching process forbidden! Like water-skiing? Find out what happened to the teen inventor of this sport that is enjoyed by millions today! Savor tunes on your FM radio? Discover what happened to the inventor of the FM radio after...
