Fantastic Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd. 229 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.All the stories of Allen Steele s award-winning Near Space series--now in an expanded and revised second edition! Since its first publication in 1999, Sex and Violence in Zero-G has become one of the most long-sought and hard-to-find of Steele s books. At last, this massive collection is back in print--complete with a new introduction, five additional stories, and a revised timeline. Includes the Hugo Award-winning novella The Death of Captain Future and the Hugo Award-winning novelette The Emperor of Mars. Reviews: .the Near Space series presents a realistic and action-packed modern vision of the industrialization of space and those who make it happen. If the collective governments of the world had any sense, they d be using these books as texts for ushering in a future worth having. -- Analog Science Fiction and Fact Sex and Violence in Zero-G collects some important work by an author who has become one of the finer hard science fiction writers around. definitely a worthwhile collection. -- Sci-Fi Weekly (A-) Steele s stories strive for a welcome verisimilitude, and how things might work in an environment that actively works against that sort of thing. And it works. Put ordinary people into a harsh, hostile environment, do bad things to them and then watch how they deal with it. It s a winning combination, especially as written by Allen Steele. -- Tangent Online For those of you unfortunate enough to have not yet discovered Allen Steele, this collection of short stories is the perfect place to start. -- Explorations.
