Tut, sir, I know you, though you know not me: are not you the man, sir, deny it if you can, sir, that came from a strange place in the land of Catita, where Jack-an-apes1 flies with his tail in his mouth, to seek out a lady as white as snow and as red as blood? 2 ha, ha! have I touched you now? 704 Eum. aside. I think this boy be a spirit.--How knowest thou all this? G. of Jack. Tut, are not you the man, sir, deny it if you can, sir, that gave all the money you had to the burying of a poor man, and but one three half-pence left...
