Cicero J. Lindly, chairman. The Chairman. Gentlemen, you will please come to order. The first order of business will be the reading of the call by the secretary. The secretary read the call for the convention, as follows: Call for National Convention of Railroad Commissioners. At a meeting of the National Convention of Railroad Commissioners, held at Denver, Colo., on August 10 and 11, 1899, the place for the next annual meeting was fixed at Milwaukee, Wis., and the time May 8, 1900, but the committee on arrangements for the next meeting, having subsequently found that proper accommodations could not be obtained at the hotels in Milwaukee on the date fixed by the convention, unanimously recommended that the date be changed to May 28, 1900, and in this recommendation the officers of the convention concurred. The railroad commissioners of all States and State officers charged with any duty in the supervision of railroads are respectfully requested to attend and participate in the discussion of such topics as...
