

Magic in a Black Box: Why Roku Is Popular: Tips, Tricks and Hacks (Paperback)

By Michael K Edwards

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Many people may not want the hassle of paying more for cable or satellite and still having the picture quality be bad because of solar interruption. Service is also expensive. Rokus offer an alternative because they aren't affected by solar flares and service does not have to be expensive. Roku users have a choice of what monthly channels they will subscribe to. With a large number of channels, Roku users can get some local channels and enjoy movies from channel providers, such as Netflix, Blockbuster at Home, Hulu Plus, and more. While Roku users may have to pay a small monthly fee for service, watching using a Roku is cheaper than paying a cable company. There are also many tricks you can do with your Roku, including being able to treat your Roku like a DVR, even if you do not have a DVR box. Do you want to turn out TV into a stereo or check your email while in front of your television? All you need to do these things is have a code and...
