Excerpt from Clearing the Mists Scene 1 - Street. Pat sings without. I'll go back again to the land I love so well. Farewell to Biddy and to Barney; Go back to where my darling Elsie sleeps, Up mong the lakes of Killarney. Enter, Pat, R., dressed in old clothes. Pat. Och! Begorra, and I'm all broke up! I'll jist tell ye what's the matter; fate has been playing the very devil wid poor old Pat! Sure didn't I win the sweet Biddy Malone, as purty a lady as iver ye saw, and we settled down in our little cot, with a wee patch for praties. After a while a little angel came to bless our home - little Elsie, the darlint! God bless her! and I were a happy man; for sure, when I was coming home from work she would run out and put her wee little arms around my neck and would say, I love you, daddy! But we soon saw that our little darlint was gittin whiter every...
